

The Scramble for Paradise Island

Everyone at your table represents a colonial power eager to access the resources available on the newly discovered "Paradise Island." As a group, divide up this land so you each get a piece (or colony) in such a way that it will be easiest for your individual countries to administer.

Please be able to explain how you will administer your individual colony.

