

Welcome delegates to the Guanahani Conference

In this conference the following points must be resolved in order for us to come together as one united country. The points are as follows:

- Indigenous Peoples
- A system of government that can unify the island
- The location of a capital city
- A favourite Sport (and team)
- A national language
- A national, non-alcoholic beverage
- Which district will get the new Walmart
- A name of your country

Each delegation will come together to discuss which points are negotiable, and which ones must be met in order for your district to enter into confederation.

Delegation Information Sheet

Indigenous Peoples

The island has multiple communities of Indigenous Peoples and Nations, erroneously referred to as “Russians” (the English explorer who discovered this land originally thought he had landed in Russia). How will you co-exist on the island?

Capital City

The Districts of Plymouth, Prince William, Taco and Guanahani all have established cities. Wales and Genesis could build brand-new cities anywhere in their districts.

A Favourite Sport & Team

Local favourites include:

- Toronto Maple Leafs
- New York Mets
- Detroit Red Wings
- All Blacks
- Washington Nationals
- St. Louis Cardinals
- Boston Celtics

National Language

All districts speak the same language (English) except for Wales who speaks Welsh – the people of Wales are very protective of their language ever since the Great Migration to Wales in 1791. There are some Welsh speakers (10% of their population) in the District of Taco.

Beverages Available

- Tim Hortons Coffee
- Starbucks Coffee
- Booster Juice
- Redbull
- Other . . .

Walmart Location

Walmart International wants to open up a location in your country. Whichever district is chosen will receive a huge injection of money, as well as a constant source of tax revenue.

Name of your country

Updated April 2018

This can be any name of your choosing. It is rumoured that the Indigenous Peoples of this massive island refer to it as Tidicaca (Ti-di-ca-ca).

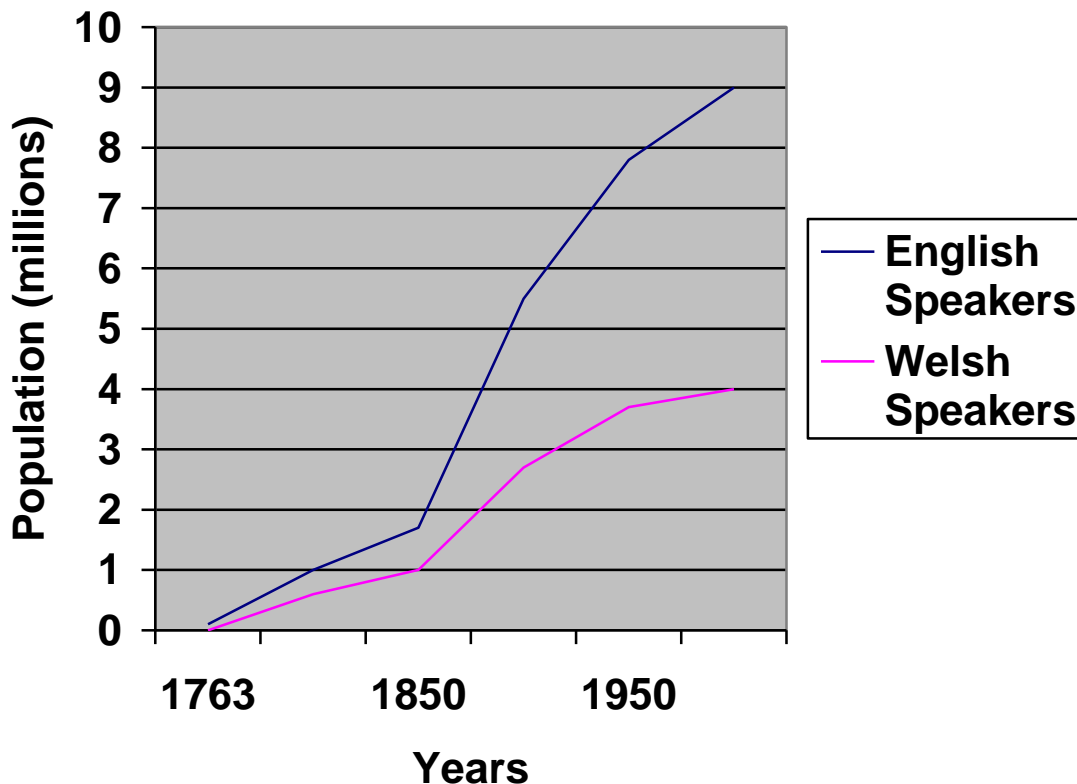

System of Government

Devise a system of government that will be able to unify the island, providing stability to its disparate communities. How will you select your Head of State? Head of Government? Will they be the same person? How will representatives be chosen?
